

To all members of the Rosemead Kiwanis Club:

In October, 2012, Kiwanis International advised all clubs of a new version of the bylaws under which all clubs must operate. The revised bylaws featured many legacy mandatory provisions but also a number of optional elections not previously available. They were also unique in that club bylaw elections, revisions and related narratives were to be posted online at the Kiwanis International website rather than being submitted by mail.

In December, 2012, the Administration Committee of the Rosemead Kiwanis Club met and recommended the bylaw elections that would apply to our club. The elections selected were made to conform to both our existing standard practices and in line with the protocols and Committee definitions considered in prior years. However, final action was deferred until Kiwanis International was ready to accept online input. That readiness occurred at the beginning of March, 2013, and the RKC Board unanimously approved the recommended elections and language at the Board meeting of March 14, 2013.

By instruction of our then President, the bylaws were next posted to the Kiwanis International website and distributed to all RKC members with the original version of this memo. Much of the explanatory paragraphs as to making elections which added additional length to the draft document distributed earlier were deleted. The bylaws were then posted to the rosemeadkiwanis.org website.

With approval of the bylaws the committees defined therein were enabled to begin the process of defining their protocols and action plans both for the current fiscal year and the 2013-2014 fiscal year. Not all Committees followed through on that process.

With the 2014-2015 fiscal year a new requirement from Kiwanis International was placed in effect. Previously adopted bylaws must be reaffirmed by the incoming Board and a vote of the membership taken on any major revisions.

In November, 2014, the RKC board elected to reaffirm the currently adopted and posted bylaws with correction of certain typographical errors. Submission to the revised bylaws to Kiwanis International, notification of the RKC membership and posting to the RKC website was authorized.
