

SIDO and ART present:

Two Free Seminars
by David Sielaff

Biblical Historian, Scholar, and Lecturer

Saturday, November 10, 2:00 pm
“The True Site of Jerusalem’s Temples”

Saturday, November 24, 2:00 pm
“The Location of King David’s Tomb”

Grace Chapel
1418 N. San Gabriel Blvd
Rosemead, California

(Just northwest off the Pomona 60 Freeway – or from Pasadena come south on San Gabriel Blvd approximately 1 1/2 miles south of the I-10 freeway)

Well known in archeological and theological circles, David Sielaff has spoken to numerous church groups, as well as historical societies, archeology societies and captains of industry; not to mention a number of government leaders and officials.

Mr Sielaff, who is Director of the Association for Scriptural Knowledge (ASK). will be in Southern California during November speaking at several venues. He is well qualified as an authority on these subjects, with participation in these study fields for decades. He also has extensive experience and contact with officials in Jerusalem.

Said one commentator “This series is a must for any serious Bible student as well as the neophyte.”

Seating is limited, so we are requesting reservations – there is ample free parking.

rsido2007@aol.com or 626/292-6550